Professional Training and Instruction

Instruction provided by MREC may qualify as credit for various licensing or certification requirements. Time spent receiving instruction may qualify as “Career Development Hours”, or “Continuing Education Credits”. MREC can provide a signed Certificate of Attendance to those who have participated in training or instructional opportunities. Use the agenda and schedule of the event (from the conference, workshop, or training session) to document and support your professional development.

Below is a sample of the MREC Certificate of Attendance. Please request your own certificate from MREC during the training opportunity or shortly thereafter by notifying the instructors or emailing mrec@uwex.edu.

The image shows a sample Certificate of Attendance form from the Midwest Rural Energy Council (MREC). The form is enclosed in a decorative border with floral corner motifs. At the top center is the MREC logo, which consists of a stylized house icon followed by the letters 'MREC' in a bold, black, sans-serif font, with 'Midwest Rural Energy Council' written in a smaller green font below it. Below the logo, the title 'Certificate of Attendance' is centered in a dark red, serif font. The main body of the form is a rectangular box with a thin black border. Inside this box, the text is as follows: 'Record of Instructional Hours' in bold; 'Name of Attendee: _____' with a horizontal line; 'Date of Event: Wednesday-Friday, March 2-4, 2016'; 'Location of Event: Radisson Hotel, La Crosse, WI'; 'Attendance recorded at the following sessions:' followed by three bullet points: 'Pre-Conference Workshop, March 2, 2016: Advanced Topics in Stray Voltage Investigation (4 Instructional hours)', 'Conference Sessions March 3, 2016 (7.25 Instructional hours)', and 'Conference Sessions March 4, 2016 (2.75 Instructional hours)'; '1 hour of instruction = 0.1 Continuing Education Units (CEUs)'; 'Approved by:' followed by a horizontal line; and finally, 'Doug Reinemann, Ph.D.', 'University of Wisconsin-Madison', and 'Department of Biological Systems Engineering' listed vertically. At the bottom of the form, there are four logos for university extension programs: 'UW Extension University of Wisconsin-Extension', 'UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA EXTENSION', 'SDSU Extension', and 'IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY Extension and Outreach'.
